PROJECT TITLE: FRANK OCEAN

In this site, I'd like to separate the content into multiple pages. I will draw inspiration from Frank Ocean's Blonded website and his brightly colored album covers and merchandise. His branding for Channel Orange and Blond are so widely recognizable — I would like to lean into that.

HOME PAGE / INTRO: Landing page, little information, more focused on introducing his artistic style.

SOURCES: These will be included at the end of each page referencing the specific sources used on that page.

All of these 4 sections of the site will delve into Frank's music while also using the music as a lens to reference his personal life and story.
